FRCC Lady's Champion

Peggy Guill holds golf trophy on which her name will be engraved as F.R.C.C. Ladies Club Champion for 1978. Peggy had rounds of 87-87 for a 36 hole total of 174 to capture her second club championship.

Peggy Guill Wins F.R.C.C. Golf Title

Peggy Guill shot an opening round 87 Saturday and led all the way Sunday finishing with another 87 to take the Falling River Country Club Ladies Golf Championship with a 36 hole score of 174.

Peggy's 87 Saturday was good for medalist honors in the qualifying round and gave her a 4 stroke lead over Jane Lyons going into Sunday's final round. Peggy increased the margin to 8 strokes when Jane shot her second 91 of the tournament but Jane's 182 was good for second place in the Championship Flight. Third spot was taken by Mary Tolley with 94 - 89 - 183.

Ginny Fedison won the third hole in a sudden death playoff with Joyce Jamerson to win first place in the first flight after both players finished at 189. Joyce took home the second place trophy and Jackie Robinson with 204 was third. First place in the second flight went to Carol Cozart at 216 while another playoff was needed to determine that Doris Nash would take second and Becky Burke third. Doris broke the deadlock on the first playoff hole.

None of the ladies were able to ace the third hole in order to get the use of a 1978 Pinto for one year. Lawson Ford Inc. parked the automobile at the third tee to give the girls an incentive but they could not give the car away. Carol Cozart used only 59 putts in 36 holes and says she may never use both hands again while putting. (She is recovering from a broken bone in her left wrist and has little use of that hand.)

Louise Lawson had a net 129 after shooting 205 gross and captured low net honors.

Awards for the longest drives went to Joyce Jamerson and Margaret Shields while Gail Thompson and Jackie Robinson won the prizes for closest to the pin on the Par 3.

Twenty-four ladies participated in the two day tournament.

Raiders Scrimmage With Fluvanna Co.

Head Coach Stuart Justus was pleased with the performance of his Raider football team in a controlled scrimmage with Fluvanna County High School last Saturday.

In a controlled scrimmage, each team is given 20 downs starting from their own 30 yard line. At the end of that series the ball goes over to the other team.

Fluvanna was unable to score on either the first or second Raider defensive units, however did score once against the third team.

The first string Raider offense scored three times in one series of downs and the second team scored once. The opponents used their first team offensively and defensively throughout the contest.

According to Justus the sophomores are looking real good.

Injuries have been limited, due mainly to the good physical condition of the players when reporting. Early morning practice has worked out well since players respond better when they are rested.

Larry White has a knee injury and probably will not be ready to play by September 1. Jimmy Baxter and Neal Cole are also injured but expected to be ready to play by opening game.
